This application contains sequence disclosures that are encompassed by the definitions for amino acid sequences set forth in 37 CFR 1.821. However, this application fails to comply with the requirements of 37 CFR 1.821 through 1.825 with regard to the sequence disclosures.

See, for example, the sequence on page 3, line 2.

In the event that the sequences are identical to those in one of the parent cases, the following form paragraph can be used in lieu of a computer diskette:

The computer readable form in this application, Serial No. 09/903,813 is identical to that filed in application Serial No. 08/000,000, filed mm/dd/yy. In accordance with 37 CFR 1.821(e), please use the {first filed, last filed or only, whichever is applicable} computer readable form filed in that application as the computer readable form for the instant application. It is understood that the Patent and Trademark Office will make the necessary change in application number and filing date for the computer readable form that will be used for the instant application. A paper copy of the sequence listing is {included in the originally-filed specification of the instant application, or included in a separately filed preliminary amendment for incorporation into the specification, whichever is applicable}.

Applicant is given the time period set in this letter within which to comply with the sequence rules, 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. Failure to comply with these requirements will result in ABANDONMENT of the application under 37 CFR 1.821(g). Extensions of time may be obtained by filing a petition accompanied by the extension fee under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136. In no case may an applicant extend the period for response beyond the six month statutory period.

A reply to a notice to comply with the sequence rules should NOT be sent to the 20231 zip code address for the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (The disks are being irradiated by electron bombardment and are showing up melted, unreadable, and or crazed).

Please direct all replies to the United States Patent and Trademark Office via one (1) of the following:
